Deliver The Best

OUR COMMITMENT

We continuously innovate our day-to-day business practices, encouraging the contribution and development of our employees and ensuring the best conditions and benefits for farmers, innovating our work ethics and processes and minimizing our environmental footprint to ensure that we grow in all aspects of our corporate social responsibility.

Our Mission on Organic Products & Fairtrade

Lafooco understand that the demand for certified organic and fairtrade products are increasing, we are now applying good technological processes in production, as consumers expect to observe a difference in the taste of organic products compared to conventional ones.

Lafooco has developed organic cashew project.

With 30 years being a pioneer in the market, Lafooco always maintains reputation as a trustworthy exporting company among the Top 5 companies of Vietnam's cashew industry.

Our cashew products are widely distributed nationwide in retail channels and supermarkets. We also export products to large markets such as China, America, Australia, Europe and many others.

Lafooco is also a member of well-known domestic and foreign associations namely AFI, CENTA, VINACAS, etc. And as a member of PAN Food, we are endorsed on sustainable food strategy, financial & management support and marketing materials.

Our Materials

Cashews are a good source of Magnesium. They also contain moderate amounts of Vitamins A, B1 and B2, plus Iron, Phosphorus, Niacin Calcium, Zinc and Amino Acids.

However, the unique characteristics of Lafooco cashew products lie within the red soil of Vietnam. It offers a nutrition foundation for cashew nut trees to flourish. For value-added products, we commit to use 100% cashew kernel from Vietnam so that they are sweeter, better looking shape and have higher good fat than products from other countries.

Our raw materials are collected from local trade companies and directly from farmers. We acquire cashew nuts from 1.000+ farmers in provinces such as Binh Phuoc, Vung Tau, Dak Lak, Dong Nai.

Our Value Chain Controlled

Lafooco uses state-of-the-art technology in cashew industry, working in the whole value chain from sourcing to processing packaging.

Our production process is controlled under global standards such as ISO 9001:2008, HACCP, BRC Food, Fair Trade, HALAL.

A Member of Pan Food

Lafooco established a trade network with many countries on different continents. We have created good relationships with traders in Vietnam, Africa and Asia.

We also benefit from being a member of Pan Food and a part of the CBI Food Ingredients program.

Our Services

Lafooco understands that the demand for nuts varied between different clients. We also collaborate with clients, traders and farmers to set up the supply chains according to the Fair Trade standards.
